

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Please see the current Policy and Procedures document, which outlines:

- An associate member is defined within the Co-Op’s Policy document as “a secondary member within a unit, who has completed the appropriate paperwork and paid the fee to be given the designation of associate member”
- The Membership & Unit Capacity section of this document also outlines “Each member unit will have one primary member, and can pay a $10 refundable fee to have an associate member within the unit; both of whom are permitted to vote in any matters at the Co-op’s General Meetings. Each unit is limited to one associate membership, resulting in a maximum of two votes per unit, on all voteable Co-op matters All other residents of the unit have no voting rights.
- Associate Membership must be applied for, and is not an automatic provision for each unit”
